Meeker Warning: When used correctly, wine is a wonderful complement to daily life. It is said to be an aid to digestion as well as an aphrodisiac. If you are foolish enough to drink too much at one time, we are not responsible for your tractor driving ability or the genetic consequences of your actions. Don't call us when you can't remember where you parked your car or just whom it is you are lying next to. And remember: If you wouldn't drink it, don't cook with it.
